

industrial

using technology or machinery for production, usually on a large scale

inefficient

unable to use time, effort, or money wisely manipulation

clever or skillful control or management modification

an alteration or change

nutrients

substances needed by plants and animals for life and growth

mutated

changed or transformed, usually genetically

over time

sparse

thinly distributed; not living or growing closely together surplus

an amount that is greater than what is used or needed