

Unit 6 Week 4

Genre Study 2

Expository Text

Key Concept

Extraordinary Finds

Essential Question:

WHAT CAN SCIENTISTS REVEAL ABOUT ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS?

Anchor Text

Pharaoh's Boat

Paired Read

"The Mystery of the Missing Sandals"

Strategy

summarize

Skill

sequence

Fluency

phrasing and rate

Text Features

photographs and lists

Vocabulary Strategy

Greek roots

Grammar

prepositions

Writing

research report: revise, edit and proofread, publish

SPELLING/ PHONICS

absorbed
prefixes

OL

immigrate
illuminate
accompany
announce
impatiently
immature
immigration
irregular
correspond
illogical
collaborate
suppress
assembly
accommodate
arrest
arrive
illegal
support
suffix
collect
musician
democracy
sympathy
impractical
sufocate

Vocabulary

bedrock- unbroken, solid rock beneath the soil embark- to start or set out, as on travels excavation- an area in which something has been exposed or uncovered for investigation exquisite- of great beauty or perfection intriguing- arousing curiosity or intense interest intrinsic- belonging to the nature or character of a thing

methodical- in a systematic, regular, routine way meticulously- very carefully; with great attention to detail