

Unit 6 Week 3

Genre Study 2

Expository Text

Key Concept

Extraordinary Finds

Essential Question:

WHAT CAN SCIENTISTS REVEAL ABOUT ANCIENT CIVILIZATIONS?

Anchor Text

Pharaoh's Boat

Shared Read

"Messages in Stone
and Wood"

Strategy

summarize

Skill

sequence

Fluency

accuracy

Text Features

photographs and lists

Vocabulary Strategy

Greek roots

Grammar

negatives

Writing

research report: revise, edit and proofread, publish

SPELLING/ PHONICS

Greek
suffixes

OL

democrat
democracy
physician
specialist
archaeology
sympathy
technology
biologist
pianist
geologist
musician
telegraph
technician
politician
tourist
heroism
apology
novelist
ecology
zoology
experience
important
excellent
electrician
mythology

Vocabulary

bedrock- unbroken, solid rock beneath the soil embark- to start or set out, as on travels excavation- an area in which something has been exposed or uncovered for investigation exquisite- of great beauty or perfection intriguing- arousing curiosity or intense interest intrinsic- belonging to the nature or character of a thing

methodical- in a systematic, regular, routine way meticulously- very carefully; with great attention to detail