

Unit 6 Week 2

Genre Study 1

Expository Text

Key Concept

Resources

Essential Question:

HOW HAVE PEOPLE USED NATURAL RESOURCES?

Anchor Text

The Story of Salt

Paired Read

"The Not-So-Golden Touch"

Strategy

ask and answer questions

Skill

main idea and key details

Fluency

intonation and phrasing

Text Structure

logical order and order of importance

Vocabulary Strategy

Latin roots

Grammar

adverbs that compare

Writing

research report: expert model, plan, draft

SPELLING/ PHONICS

Suffixes

-ance, -ence,

-ant, -ent

OL

experience
conference persistent acquaintance
important permanent disappearance
fragrance
president
occurrence intelligent observant
constant nuisance
violence
evident
incident
defiance
excellent hesitant terrible
noticeable
profitable
elegance diligent

Vocabulary

commodity- something that can be bought or sold distribution- the process of delivering and spreading out goods dominant- ruling, governing, or having authority edible- fit or safe to eat impenetrable- unable to be broken through; difficult to understand ornate- elaborately adorned or decorated replenished- resupplied; refilled significant- important, having special meaning or consequence