

Unit 5 Week 2

Genre Study 1

Narrative Nonfiction:
Biography

Key Concept

Good Citizens

Essential Question:

WHAT DO GOOD CITIZENS DO?

Anchor Text

*Elizabeth Leads the Way: Elizabeth Cady
Stanton and the Right to Vote*

Paired Read

"Susan B. Anthony Takes Action!"

Strategy

ask and answer questions

Skill

author's point of view

Fluency

phrasing

Text Features

captions and timelines

Vocabulary Strategy

prefixes and suffixes

Grammar

subject and object pronouns

Writing

biography: expert model, plan, draft

SPELLING/ PHONICS

inflectional
endings

-ed, -ing,
-s

OL

names
named naming hopes hoped hoping dances danced
dancing
drops
dropped dropping
wraps
wrapped wrapping
basketball
airplane
birthday
driving
traded

Vocabulary

citizenship- the position of being a citizen of a country with all of the rights that come with it continued- goes on without stopping daring- courageous and bold horrified- filled with great fear, horror, and dislike participate- join with others or take part in something proposed- suggested something to others for consideration unfairness- state of being unfair or unjust waver-to pause when being unsure